Mr. Arthur Ward,
General Manager
New Zealand Dairy Board
P.O. Box 417

Dear Mr. Ward:

In your letter of March 29, you advised me that the Board has agreed to retain me as Legal Counsellor in Washington, on the terms previously discussed with Sir Andrew and described in your letter.

I am happy to accept this arrangement and hope that it will prove useful to the Board in protecting and developing the export of dairy products to the United States.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. GEORGE BRONZ,
888 Seventeenth Street, N.W.
WASHINGTON D.C. 20006.

Dear Mr. Bronz,

At its meeting yesterday the Board unanimously agreed to your retention as Legal Counsellor for the Dairy Board in matters associated with dairy products problems in Washington as likely to affect the export of dairy products from New Zealand.

Following the discussion between yourself and the Chairman the Board would be happy to conclude an arrangement with you on the basis of a retaining fee at the rate of $500 per month, or, as we prefer to term it, $6,000 per annum.

It is recognized that this retainer fee will enable you to keep the Board informed of developments from time to time, but should a situation arise in the near future where we are involved with such matters as Section 22 hearings or submissions to the Administration, then you would be paid a separate fee. Sir Andrew indicated to the Board that after the earlier years of this arrangement it would probably be possible for us to come to some mutual agreement on an annual fee.

Would you please let me have your comments on the foregoing.

Yours faithfully,

GENERAL MANAGER.
